

AROUND the TOWNSHIP

A. J. Rathbone, high school principal, will be lucky if the ghost of Billy Moore doesn't keep him awake nights.

Billy was proprietor of one of Niles' old-time saloons. Among his worldly goods was a fine cash register which reposed on his bar. That register must have cost two-three hundred dollars and it had Billy's name in big gilt letters across its metal belly.

Billy is dead and his saloon is no more. But Rathbone has the cash register ringing up milk shakes and soda pop in the high school cafeteria.

Speaking of Mr. Rathbone, we have an awful soft spot for him because we have evidence that he reads the Register with an eagle eye each week. What with one thing and another, after we first took over the paper, we didn't get as much high school news in it as we would have liked. Mr. Rathbone has never complained, although we feel he had cause to. We have things working now so he will have no cause after school opens in the fall.

George Bonde did it in his usual unobtrusive way, but we believe attention should be called to the fine new sign on the roof of the P. C. Hansen Lumber Co. It seconds the motion made by the junior chamber's sign on the hill and points the way to Oakland for passing airmen.

Eph Musick, principal at the Newark grammar school, says he's going to quit after next winter and spend the rest of his days in running an auto park or something.

We hope Mr. Musick will change his mind because his departure will be the Township's loss. He's a little different than the average school man. As a disciplinarian he can't be beat and yet the kids all love him. He seems to have the faculty for seeing the best in his pupils and bringing it out where others can see it too.

Joe California issued a challenge last week to Doc Pond for a skating contest with a five dollar bet on the side. We have not heard from Pond yet.

There has been a lot of refurbishing going on around Niles lately. Nearly all the restaurants have done some painting, the theater is undergoing extensive alterations and Dick Attinger, newest of the town's business men, has put a coat of paint on his service station.

Young Mrs. Quartaroli who has a good deal to do with the City of Florence restaurant in Niles, thinks the township is about the best place on earth. The other day she was recalling her life in Vancouver, B. C., where she went to school. When she left Vancouver, she was certain that nothing could equal it, but when, after a few years in Niles, she went back on a visit, she found the place suffering by comparison.

Two wandering skunks visited Mike Salvadorini's restaurant in Centerville the other day. Mike is usually a genial host but he cannot be blamed for drawing the line at his unusual guests. A shotgun finished the skunks but not before they had put in a couple of good licks themselves.

E. H. Frick, who most everybody calls "Ernie," is not yet 30. He has been in business for himself for eight years and he's making unusual progress. It was back in 1928, after he had been working for Bill Hirsch in Irvington that Frick decided to try for himself.

"Mr. Hirsch gave me the idea," he recalls. I opened up a shop in an old barn in my back yard. The barn leaked. In rainy weather I had to keep shifting expensive supplies from one spot to the other to keep them from being rained on."

The last two or three years, Frick has made his business hum. Just the other day, he obtained the contract for the heating and plumbing of the new agricultural room at the high school. He is installing the latest types of heating and air conditioning equipment. He has recently acquired a new truck.

A woman is never satisfied until the bad news she is expecting turns up.

In 1934 only two Americans died of the gout—thanks to the late depression, no doubt.

15,000 EXPECTED TO ATTEND FIESTA

NEW BRICK PLANT PLANNED BY DUFFEY S. E. S. LODGE HAS ALL IN READINESS FOR BIG THREE-DAY EVENT

DECOTO TO BE FACTORY SITE

NILES—Lester Duffey, superintendent of the W. S. Dickey clay products plants at Niles and Livermore, announced this week that he and some associates will organize a new company for the production of high grade common brick, floor tile, roof tile and sewer brick.

Tentative plans call for the construction of a plant on property near Decoto.

There is a good market field in California for the production of such products, Duffey declares. His plans call for an initial investment in the neighborhood of $150,000.

DICKEY PLANT SALE RUMORED

NILES—Rumors of sale of the W. S. Dickey Clay Products plants at Livermore and Niles were spread through southern Alameda county this week. While officials of the company refused to comment, reliable sources declared the deal is about to go through. Sale is said to be to a group of competing firms who will scrap the two California factories.

MRS. MARTIN OF NEWARK DIES

Mrs. Adelaide Martin, a resident of Newark for the past 53 years, passed away at home there on Tuesday, July 21, after a brief illness.

The deceased was a native of the Azores, but came to this country when a young girl. She had made her home in Newark since the age of seventeen years and has a host of friends in the community.

Funeral services were conducted by the Botelho Chapel of the Palms. A requiem high mass was celebrated at St. Edward's church in Newark Friday morning, July 24. Interment was in Holy Ghost cemetery, Centerville.

She is survived by the following children: Mrs. Rosa Rogers and Alfred Martin of Newark; Mrs. Ann Santos and Manuel Martin of Oakland; Mrs. Alice Munez of Monterey; Mrs. Olive Cordeira of Hayward; and Mrs. Mary Romero of San Francisco. Three brothers and one sister also survive: Frank, Joseph and John Silva of San Leandro, and Mrs. Mary Fields also of San Leandro.

TRAINEES VISIT TOWNSHIP AREA

NILES—Fifty trainees in sanitary engineering from Berkeley paid a visit to Washington Township Wednesday. The trip was an educational tour under the direction of County Health Officer Dr. Ira Church and George Ranke of the state board of health.

The group visited Niles, Decoto and other township communities, had lunch at the Florence restaurant in Niles and heard comments by Roland Bondel and Harold Gray of the Alameda county mosquito abatement service.

GRAU ENTERTAIN

NILES—Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Grau were hosts Sunday evening for members of the California-Nebraska alumni association.

Tomato Contract Signed

Origin of the Holy Ghost Fiesta GROWERS OKEH

By MARY D. VALIM

The first Holy Ghost celebration was promoted by Dona Isabel, Princess of Aragon and Queen of Portugal, the wife of Don Diniz, King of Portugal, in the latter part of the thirteenth century, and was held in the Holy Ghost (Espírito Santo) church in the town of Alenquer, continental Portugal, which church she caused to be built for that purpose. She also organized a brotherhood among the noblemen to further sponsor this celebration, which later became popular and spread throughout the kingdom. When the Azores and Madeira Islands were discovered and colonized, the colonists took this custom to those islands, where the Holy Ghost has been honored ever since in every town, village and hamlet. Later, a colony of Portuguese fishermen established a brotherhood of the Holy Ghost at New Orleans; and the Portuguese immigrants to Brazil and California did likewise, and thus this celebration became an annual tradition on this continent.

The original "fiesta" of the Holy Ghost lasted two days, Saturday and Sunday. On Saturday, a procession was held by the members of the "Irmandade" (brotherhood), carrying lighted candles; the priest would bless the bread and meat to be used the following day by the townspeople. On Sunday, mass was celebrated in the church, where the queen deposited her crown on the altar, and the priest placed it on the head of a peasant child, as a sign of humility. Then followed the "Vodo," consisting of lunch for the townspeople with the bread and meat blessed the preceding day. Entertainment of different kinds held sway in the afternoon.

The emblems used in this "fiesta" or celebration are the crown, the lag, the rods and the "espadin" (small sword). The crown symbolizes royalty; the flag, the descent of the Holy Ghost upon the apostles; the twelve rods, the apostles, the four largest ones representing the four evangelists, and the "espadin" the government or civil authority. The flag is composed of a white dove on a purple background.

These celebrations would customarily start on Sunday "in albis" and end on Trinity Sunday. The expenses were borne by one person, called the "mordomo," a committee of ten men would bear the expenses, and they were called the "Society of Ten." At the crowning in the church, the priest intones the Veni Creator, and when the procession leaves the church he sings the Magnificat. In those days, the crown was accompanied by a "folia" made up of three singers carrying a flag and a drum.

Tradition has it that Queen Saint Isabel dreamt that she should erect a church dedicated to the "Espírito Santo" at Alenquer. She went to mass early the following day and upon leaving the church went to the site where she contemplated erecting the building, and was surprised to find that the foundation had already been laid. No one seemed to know who was responsible for this, and everybody believed it was a miracle.

Queen Saint Isabel was a good and active woman. She founded orphanages, homes, hospitals, churches and religious orders; and she acted as peacemaker a number of times between her spouse, the king, and other members of the royal family. Her body lies in Coimbra, Portugal, where, during the first part of this month great festivities were held in commemoration of the sixcentenary of her death. The Papal Legate to the religious part of that program was His Eminence Dom Manuel Gonçalves Cerejeira, Cardinal Patriarch of Lisbon, who at the invitation of the S. P. R. S. I., a Portuguese women's organization of California, is expected here next week to preside at the Pontifical high mass to be celebrated at the Civic Auditorium in Oakland on August 9.

TERMS OF PACT WITH CANNERY

CENTERVILLE—First fruits of the Alameda county farm rebellion against starvation prices for tomatoes were announced this week when M. T. Silva, C. A. Rinderspacher, Louis Amaral and Charles Langdon reported details of the new cannery agreement between the Alameda County Canning Vegetable Growers' association and the F. M. Ball Canning Co. of Oakland.

Forty-one tomato growers gathered in the high school to hear the report. The group warmly complimented its committee for the careful work done in preparing the agreement.

The contract governs the canning of 1200 acres of tomatoes, most of them in Washington Township. It provides that the Ball company shall be paid a small percentage for canning and handling the crop and a larger percentage if a price above $15 per ton is obtained.

The acreage involved in the contract is being handled by 65 farmer members of the association.

Farmers at this week's meeting reported the outlook good for tomato prices. Drought in the east has made canners anxious to obtain a larger acreage than is available locally and prices are going up.

Members of the growers' association are enthusiastic over the possibilities offered by their new co-operative. They believe that similar canning arrangements can be made to cover other vegetables.

LIONS PLAN NEW SIGN FOR TOWN

CENTERVILLE — Directors of the Lions club are investigating the possibility of erecting a two-faced Neon sign near the railroad station. They plan to bring the matter before county authorities for approval before going ahead with the plans.

The sign will be part of a booster program which will include improving the appearance of the vacant property in the center of town.

NILES MAN IS FINED

CENTERVILLE — Salvatore Flores of Niles was fined twenty-five dollars by Judge Allen G. Norris on a complaint of running into a telephone pole and fire hydrant in the north end of Centerville, while driving in a state of intoxication Monday night.

Irvington Group Seeks Stop Sign at Crossing

IRVINGTON—In an effort to cut down the number of automobile accidents at the Y between Irvington and Warm Springs, members of the Irvington Junior Chamber of Commerce have organized a campaign to have a stop sign placed at the intersection.

At the meeting of the group this week, O. N. Hirsch and E. L. Rose were named to interview safety council and state highway

NILES — Tremendous preparations to take care of a crowd expected to be at least 15,000 strong at the Niles second annual holy ghost fiesta are practically complete.

President Henry Rego and his co-workers have acquired six steers to take care of the huge crowds that will be wanting food on Sunday, and Monday.

The dance pavilion has been covered, the banquet enclosure is ready and decorations are being put up to add to the air of festivity.

Queen Anna Ponti and her aids, Cecilia Freitas and Emmeline Mesquite, will have the places of honor in the parade which will be held Sunday.

At least seven drill teams have indicated they will take part in the parade. The Centerville band, the Amador high band and Larry's Washingtonians will provide music for the fiesta.

Program for the three days follows:

J. E. THANES OBSERVE 62D ANNIVERSARY OF THEIR WEDDING DAY

NILES — Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Thane were honored yesterday by hosts of their friends on the occasion of their sixty-second wedding anniversary.

The Thanes have lived in Washington Township for more than 50 years, having come here in 1883. They have seen the township communities grow and have taken an active part in its development. Almost every major progressive movement in the district bears signs of their handiwork.

Children of San Francisco pioneers, the Thanes were married in 1874. Mrs. Thane, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon J. Tilden, had just graduated from Mills seminary. Mr. Thane, born on the Orator, famous old store ship in San Francisco bay, had spent his boyhood in San Francisco.

Following their marriage, the Thanes lived in San Francisco and later in Oakland, before moving to Niles. Country life had been recommended by doctors for Mrs. Thane's health.

The Thanes have many reminis-cences of early days in the bay region.

Mrs. Thane recalls the long buggy rides through the country to the beaches below the old Cliff House. Yachting was a favorite sport of San Francisco's young folk and she remembers receiving a membership in the Penguin yacht club as a wedding present.

Although they are both over 80 years of age, Mr. and Mrs. Thane take an active interest in all community activities. Mrs. Thane is head of the history committee of the Country Club of Washington Township and was one of the organizers of the club. She played an important part in the formation of the Washington Union high school district.

Sixty-two years of married life finds the Thanes enthusiastic partners. When the Township Register asked Mr. Thane if he recommended marriage as an institution, his answer was brisk.

"Certainly," he said.

REGLI TO TAKE SALINAS POST

CENTERVILLE — Jess Regli, Washington Union high school coach for the past 10 years, has been named coach at the Salinas Union high school to succeed Harry Shipkey there.

No successor to his position here has been named as yet. The matter probably will come up at the next school board meeting on August 18.

Regli has had an enviable record during his period of service at Washington, having produced many winning teams.

Black or Dark Silk Sheers Vogue

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

AS TO foremost fashions for summer, costumes of black or dark sheers such as silk chiffons, marquisettes, organza and hand-some nets are carrying first honors.

Your wardrobe may be as you supposed replete with chic, but if it be sans one of the beguilingly styled dark sheers better send an immediate S.O.S. call in to your dressmaker or to your smartest store in town or to whoever caters to your sartorial needs. Telling you, we are, that without a suit or a dress of some one or other of these silk sheers or nets in black or in brown, navy or dubonnet red or deep purple dye your summer dress program will be sadly lacking indeed. We might add that black is the favorite of them all.

Especially are fascinating things being done with redingote fashions made of silk sheers that are thin to the point of transparency since they are designed to be worn over either a dress or slip in a solid bright color or a gay print. See the charming and chic ensemble to the right in the picture. It conveys the idea most eloquently. Here a black silk chignon redingote with the new circular-cut hemline is posed over a pink silk moire slip. Very French in feeling is this most winsome 1936 afternoon dress. Note the black silk taffeta applique of roses on the redingote. The corsage of huge twin roses accurately repeats the pink tone of the silk slip. Narrow velvet ribbon ties about the waist and trims the very lovely pink panama hat worn with this costume.

While we are on the subject of black silk chignon and its importance in the summer style picture it might be well to mention the new skirts of black chiffon which are the smartest ever for evening, worn with a tunic or jacket-blouse done in flamboyantly colored flowered print. These skirts are cut full circular and their hemline measures yards. Yet with all this fullness you are not made aware of the fact as the skirt is styled to fit about the hips in slenderizing sleekness gradually and gracefully leading into soft undulations about the hemline. You will find a skirt of this description to be a real asset in your summer clothes collection. Have in reserve a shirtwaist blouse of black net also a decollete bodice of self black chiffon—an economical way to acquire a wardrobe of smart formals for varied occasion.

If you have an urge for color you will find joy in a costume that poses a redingote of dubonnet red silk chignon or organza over a slip of gorgeous flower print. The color effect is beyond the telling in word or picture. It requires the evening lights to glorify it.

Could anything in the way of a daytime costume be smarter and more to be coveted than the jacket-and-dress twosome to the left in the illustration? If so we have not discovered it. You may be interested in knowing that this ensemble is of royal lineage in that it is a creation by no less a noted designer than the personal dress-maker to Queen Mary. It came over on the R. M. S. Queen Mary as did a whole fashion load of stunning modes. The dress is perfect for afternoon wear on warm summer days, made as it is of cool Tudor-brown twytex net. The finely pleated and tucked jabot is of white silk net, and the loose coat is of brown crossbar twytex.

The story of net as it unfolds in the summer style program is proving a most fascinating one. Nothing smarter or more practical has centered the style stage than the jacket dresses tailored of cool and comfortable and chic looking nets either in black or the stunning new rich dark colors.

DINNER SUIT

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

The vogue for tailored clothes goes into the evening. Very stylish indeed is the young woman in the picture who wears a strictly tailored dinner suit with its 1890 jacket and buttoned skirt. It is fashioned of creamy white Mt. Airy cloth.

QUILTED COATS FOR BEACH WEAR LATEST

A coat which looks as though it were made from the family's heirloom quilt will go a long way toward creating a sensation on the beaches. Dressier versions that have intricate quilting patterns are destined for wear over summer formals.

Large floral motifs which have bright colors on white or pastel backgrounds are the most fashionable for beach wear. Some of these coats are made of printed cottons which have the designs outlined with quilting, while others are pieced together in the regulation quilt manner.

The quilted coat of plaid woolen, very light of weight and quite gay in its color combinations, is shown for vacation wear, while the taffeta and hand-blocked linen versions are evening favorites.

Flowers Are Dramatic

White flowers on a black gown are dramatic; and on a white gown they emphasize an effect of simplicity. A spot of brilliant scarlet on a white gown is gorgeous. Color harmony may be achieved by wearing flowers that blend into the general tone of the costume, or with a contrasting complementary color.

Flowers Deck Shoes

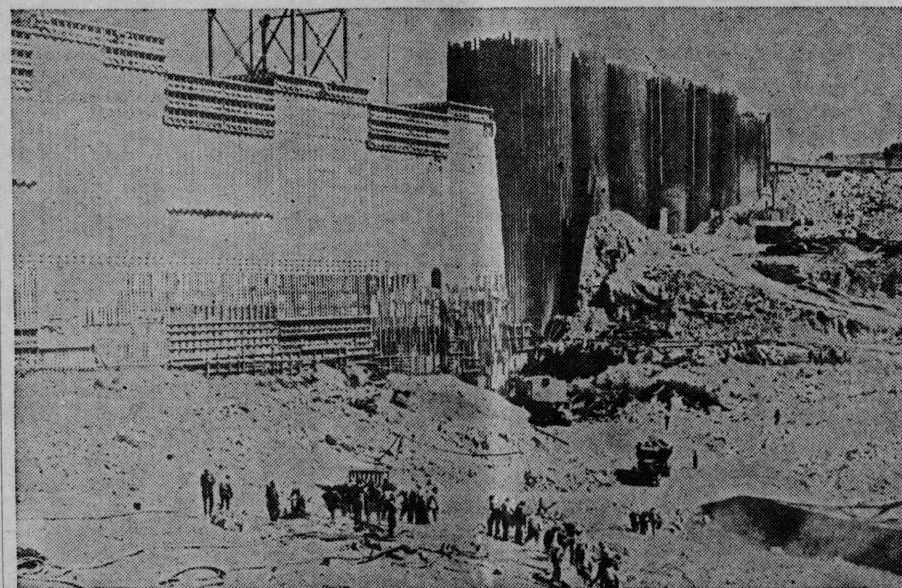

Shoes have become so fancy that one widely-known Paris house shows street shoes trimmed with applied flowers in contrasting colors and a belt and purse to match.

Household Questions

Grease the measuring cup before measuring sirup or molasses and the ingredients will not stick to the sides of the cup and there will be no waste.

Always sweep rugs and carpets the way of the grain. Brushing against the grain roughens the surface and it tends to brush the dust in instead of out.

Partly cook cereal in a double boiler the night before using and leave it on the back of the stove, being sure to cover well with water. It will be well cooked in the morning.

Sugar sprinkled over the tops of cookies or sponge cakes before putting them into the oven forms a sweet crust and makes a richer cookie.

Cloths saturated with polishing liquids and stored away in closets often cause fires through spontaneous combustion. Store the cloths in covered tin or galvanized cans.

If you wish to avoid bean rust, do not pick beans when the dew is on them or after rain.

Glass stoppers may be easily removed from bottles if a towel is dipped into boiling water and wrapped around the neck of bottle for a few minutes.

Wash lettuce and place in refrigerator to get very cold before using in making salads. Crisp lettuce makes the best salad.

MRS. A. C. GARCIA GIVES HER FAVORITE RECIPE OF TASTY BREAKFAST CAKE

Mrs. A. C. Garcia cooperates with the Register this week in its effort to present to its readers quickly prepared, or quickly "throw together" recipes. She states that she has tried the following breakfast cake and has found it true. Her family highly approves of it and recommends it as an attractive feature of any breakfast. It takes only 30 minutes of your time and can be prepared while your coffee comes to a boil. You use:

- 2 cups of ordinary flour
- 3 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 t. salt
- 3/4 cup brown sugar

- 1/4 cup sugar
- 1/4 cup shortening
- 2 teaspoons cinnamon
- 1 egg
- 3/4 cup milk
- 1/2 cup raisins chopped
- 1 tablespoon melted butter
- 2 tablespoons granulated sugar
- Sift flour, baking powder and salt. Add the brown sugar. Cut in shortening. Add chopped raisins. Beat the egg, add the milk and stir into dry ingredients, forming a soft dough. Pour into flat greased pan. Pour melted butter over top. Combine sugar and cinnamon and spread over the butter. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees) 20 or 25 minutes.

CHEESE LOAF

This is grand for summer for a main dish on your meatless menu.

- 1/2 pound of well-ripened American cheese
- 8 salted crackers
- Small can of pimientos
- 5 or 6 sweet pickles
- 6 hard-cooked eggs
- Mayonnaise

Grind together the cheese, crackers, pimientos, pickles, and the whites of the hard-cooked eggs. Mash the egg yolks. Mix all together, adding salt to taste and mayonnaise to hold it together. Form into a loaf and chill. Serve in slices on lettuce, or as a salad or sandwich spread. This makes an excellent paste for canapes.

A suggested supper menu with the cheese loaf is as follows:

A Summery Supper

- Cheese loaf
- Sliced tomatoes
- Escalloped potatoes and onions
- Wholewheat bread and butter
- Frosted cup cakes
- Orange ice
- Coffee or tea

INCOME TAX SHOWS INCREASE

LOS ANGELES—The income tax collections in California, by the bureau of internal revenue, for the year 1935, show a 32.6 percent increase over the year 1933. The 1934 collections show a 3.2 percent increase over 1933. The three years' collections as announced by Donald Renshaw, state director for the national emergency council, are as follows:

1933	$56,804,104
1934	58,623,353

GOVERNMENT BONDS PASS ONE-HALF BILLION MARK

The sale of United States Savings Bonds at the Niles postoffice for the period between April 1935 and June 1936 have reached $3,231,255, as disclosed by H. V. Fournier, Niles postmaster, in a report made coincidental with the report from Wayne C. Taylor, acting secretary of the treasury, that the sale of these bonds had passed the one-half billion dollar mark. Savings bonds were first made available on March 1, 1935. For the ten months period from that date to the end of the year, purchases amounted to a maturity value of $250,000,000 or an average daily sale for each business day for that period of approximately $1,000,000 maturity value. Purchases from January 1, 1936, to July 6, represent maturity value of $241,000,000 or an average daily sale of approximately $1,355,000 to reach business day, reflecting a 50 per cent increase in the average daily sales for the year 1936 over 1935.

Purchases for the new fiscal year beginning the first day of this month are at an increased rate averaging a daily maturity value of $1,823,700 which is in excess of 80 per cent increase over the daily average sales for the year 1935. Average daily sales in July, 1936, are approximately 75 per cent ahead of average sales for July, 1935.

United States savings bonds may be purchased at all post offices of the first and second classes, at most of the third class, and at some of the fourth class offices or direct-by-mail from the Treasurer of the United States, or any federal reserve bank. The direct-by-mail sales have likewise shown a consistent ratio of increase during the last several months. The upward trend of sales is apparently due not only to increasing numbers of new purchasers but to the purchases made by present owners at regular intervals.

United States savings bonds are sold in denominations from $25 to $1,000 maturity value. The $100 maturity value bond—$75 purchase price—is proving by far to be the most popular, especially among those who are purchasing Savings Bonds under the new Regular Purchase Plan recently announced by the treasury department. This plan provides that upon request, the treasury department will mail a memorandum statement each week, each month, or at other regular intervals as the purchaser may elect.

Townsend Club

The Township Townsend Club will meet next Monday, August 3, at 8:00 p. m. in the Washington Union high school. Delegates to the Townsend National convention will give their full report at this meeting. After the meeting, refreshments will be served.

Anyone interested is invited to attend.

POSSIBILITIES WITH PEACHES

Brighten your menus and brighten your table with the infinite possibilities that peaches offer these days. It's Thursday, say, and a most excellent day it is for peach muffins that come out of the oven golden and flaky and just the thing to serve with an omelet which includes vegetables in a Spanish sauce. Since fish dinners are quick to prepare, you might, on Friday, give a little extra time to the dessert and whip a peach Bavarian into shape to chill in the refrigerator. Over the week-end—Saturday and Sunday don't forget to serve a peach pie. On Monday, you are probably using up the remains of the leg of lamb from Sunday's dinner, and you don't have to bother much about vegetables since there are plenty of things cooked in the refrigerator. Well, at best, this is apt to be a rather unadventurous meal. Unless—unless you serve a pretty sparkling fruit cocktail to begin it. Peaches will do the trick. Combine them with minted pears and halves of pims, top with a sprig of mint and a red cherry. The ncomes Tuesday, by all calendar rules. Use halves of cooked peaches cooked with your meat roast; baste them from time to time, and see how savory they become. Wednesday's a good time for a fruit salad. And here are some tested recipes for peach desserts:

PEACH CARMEL PIE

Put two tablespoons butter and four tablespoons sugar in a skillet and cook slowly until thick and brown, stirring constantly to prevent burning. Add some peach syrup and then add two tablespoons cornstarch smoothed with one tablespoon cold water and one slightly beaten egg yolk. Cook in a double boiler until thick. Arrange the sliced peaches in concentric circles in a pie tin lined with pastry. Pour over the caramel sauce. Bake at 450 degrees for fifteen minutes, then at 400 degrees for fifteen minutes more, or until done. Cool and top with whipped cream. This serves six persons.

Apple and Peach Dumplings

Roll baking powder biscuit dough quite thin and cut in four inch squares. Pare and core two apples and cut in eighths. Drain eight halves of peaches from the juice. Place one peach half and a quarter of an apple in the center of each piece of dough, bring corners together and pinch the edges together. Place on a plate in a steamer and steam for forty-five minutes. Serve hot with plenty of butter and brown sugar, or with sugar and cream. This makes eight dumplings.

Sour Cream Peach Tarts

Mix together one cup thick sour cream and one-half cup confectioner's sugar. Beat slightly. Beat one egg white stiff and add. Fill tart shells from half to two-thirds full of this mixture. Drain the contents of one No. 2 can of sliced peaches, if you have no fresh ones, and lay the slices neatly on top of the filling, covering it over entirely. This serves eight persons.

SUMMER SALAD MODERNE

This stunning salad of watermelon, pineapple, and tomato slices is cool and crisp and colorful and with its tangy dressing is exactly right for a first course to your luncheon. Cut round slices of iced watermelon about three-fourths of an inch thick. Cut off the green and white rind (and some of the pink if slices are very large), leaving circles of heart of melon about 5 inches in diameter. Remove seeds, of course. On crisp lettuce on individual salad plates, place first a slice of watermelon; on top of that put a slice of pineapple, a bit smaller than the watermelon circle; and on top of the pineapple a thick slice of ripe red tomato, which naturally will be somewhat smaller in diameter than the pineapple. Pass a bowl of dressing made by combining three-fourths cupful of ketchup and one-fourth cupful of sour cream with each cupful of mayonnaise.

TRY PRETZELS IN SALAD

Pretzels crushed to bits will rise again to culinary heights if tossed into a fresh vegetable salad. No further embellishment is needed for the salad, other than a really good French dressing with a tiny bit of garlic.

PEACH PARFAIT

Partially crush one small box of raspberries and add one-third cup sugar. Chill. Fill parfait glasses about one-third with peach ice cream. Add whipped cream and crushed raspberries. Repeat process until glasses are filled. Garnish with a few raspberries.

The difference between the professional and the amateur is the professional gets paid for acting like the amateur.

Fine Pudding Bears Most Unusual Title

A friend of the Township Register just recently had a typical Southern "Mammy" working for her. Economic conditions had caused her to migrate to California and she was earning her livelihood with her wonderful southern cooking. When she served a delicious new pudding to the family and was asked what the name of it was and where the recipe could be obtained, she said:

"Well, it is a recipe ah made. You see it's this-a-way. Ah was cooking for a club in Tennessee on its regular meeting and luncheon day and Ah had nothing different for dessert. Remembering that men awl like apple sauce and graham crackers, Ah mad this pudding. They asked me what it was called and wanted extra helpings. They insisted that Ah tell them what it was called and Ah said, 'damn if Ah know.' So Ah never named it anything else and whenever they wants some o' this pudding they always say they want 'Damn-if-Ah-know pudding.'"

We are giving this simple recipe for a delicious pudding to our readers for their approval and hope that they enjoy it as much as those club men did.

"Damn-if-I-know Pudding"

Roll graham crackers as you would for a pie crust and spread about two or three inches thick over the bottom of a square oven pan, which has been greased. Place over that a thick layer (about 3 or 4 inches, preferably hot) apple sauce. Repeat this process, alternating graham cracker crumbs and hot applesauce until you have filled the pan, and place in your refrigerator. When chilled, slice about three inches thick and place a spoonful of whipped cream on top of each slice for individual serving.

Your family will demand this very tasty dessert throughout the summer days, we are sure.

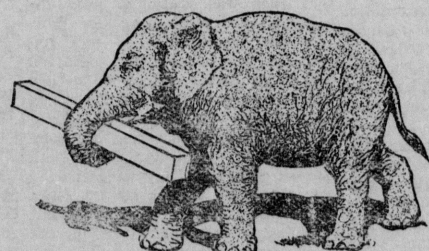

This is another recipe which may be made up the day before, thereby making less work the day you wish to serve it.

An Iowa editor air conditioned his home by piping the cool air into it from a cave beneath his home. If he could can the hot air from his office he would have a way of heating it in the winter time . . . or then again he may print all his hot air so that's out.

HEAVY Equipment for HEAVY Work

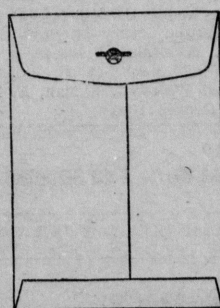

Heavy, bulky mailings require extra strong envelopes. We offer the new Mail-Well SILVER FIBRE CLASP and Mail-Well BANKERS' FLAP Envelopes.

The Silver Fibre Clasp envelope is one of the Mail-Well specialties. Made of a distinctive, high-quality, tough silver-grey stock it presents a rich appearance.

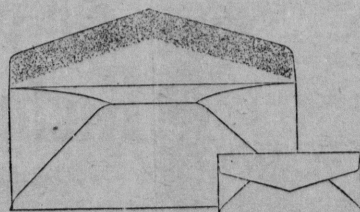

It prints well and lends itself to either hand or type writer addressing.

The Mail-Well clasp is made of brass, which does not tarnish or mar the face of adjoining envelopes. The clasp is securely fastened at eight points through double thicknesses of paper.

You will find service, quality, and beauty at their utmost in this envelope.

These two envelopes are built for heavy duty --- to withstand rough handling. They insure safe and proper delivery of the contents.

Mail-Well bankers' flap envelopes are made with an unusually deep shoulder flap which is heavily and fully gummed adding greatly to the speed with which these envelopes are sealed, as well as affording the utmost security when mailed.

Considering how fine this railroad transportation is nowadays, you can't travel any cheaper. Fares lowest in history—substantial savings on round trip tickets. So why not take the train? It's safer. It's more dependable.

You can't beat the improved travel comfort in coaches and sleeping cars. It's a good thing movies don't have such restful seats—most folks would sure fall asleep.

Ever hear about the Free pick-up-and-delivery of less than carload freight? It's a great convenience to shippers and receivers alike. Western railroads pick up at the door, ship by fast freight, and deliver to consignee's door.

Railroad trains are running on faster schedules these days. Seems like the iron horse wants to show these new streamlined diesels that he can step out, too. Both passenger and freight schedules have been speeded up.

What's more, the railroads believe in "safety first." Last year not one passenger was killed in a train accident on western railroads.

Talk to your local railroad agent. He's full of information about traveling and shipping.

We are proud of railroad achievements, appreciate the public's good will and increased patronage, and pledge continued progress.

De Leon Names Groups For Lions Club Work

CENTERVILLE—Standing committees for the year were named this week at the Lions club meeting in the Black N' White cafe by Harry De Leon, new president.

Ed King, Joe Bettencourt and Owen Swainson are membership committee members; Lions education committee comprises Tom Maloney, J. V. Gould and Al Rathbone; milk fund committeemen are Joe Jason and Tom Maloney; attendance committeemen are L.C. Marriott, Chick Santos and Frank Madruga.

Two special committees were named. Manuel Lewis, Miles Smith, Joe Jason and Allen Norris will conduct a ballot to determine the preference of Centerville residents regarding the blowing of the town siren.

S. P. R. S. I. OF CENTERVILLE TO HAVE MEETING

CENTERVILLE—The first meeting of Council No. 4, S. P. R. S. I. after the summer intermission will be held in Parish hall on the afternoon of Thursday, August 6. A card party will follow the meeting.

ROSICRUCIAN MEET SEES EXPERIMENTS

CENTERVILLE—"Varying the tension of water by concentrated thought in laboratory tests conclusively proves that mind exerts an influence upon matter," says Miss Phoebe Ormsby of Centerville.

Just returning from the international AMORC Rosicrucian convention in San Jose, she states that numerous experiments conducted during the convention week in the physics laboratory of the Order revealed that water placed in a tensionmeter and registering a definite resistance could have its pressure discernibly altered by the concentration of thought upon it. Whether the human mind has certain capacities which radiate from it and which are not limited by time and space is no longer an interesting speculation, but the subject of scientific inquiry. Dr. J. E. Ryan of Duke University, nationally known psychologist, addressed the Rosicrucian convention, says Miss Ormsby, upon his renowned researches in this field. Spaking of science, Dr. Ryan said in part:

"In addition to the general relations of space and time, we want to find out what the relationship of these capacities is to ourselves, to our mental processes, to sense perception, to will, to attention, and we are finding out something slowly and surely. We have found certain conditions under which these capacities function more definitely than others."

It is also related that the Rosicrucian convention was attended by nearly one thousand persons from twelve countries and nearly every state of the Union. Of special importance was the unanimous vote approving of the present administration of the Rosicrucian Order.

Centerville Personals

The wedding of Ann Logan of Alvarado and Joseph A. Silva of Centerville has been announced for an early date in August.

YOUNG LOCAL COUPLE ENGAGED

CENTERVILLE—The engagement of Miss Margaret King of San Francisco and Clarence George of Centerville was announced at a gathering at the home of Mrs. Fred Lewis on Wednesday, July 22. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony King and resided in Centerville until two years ago when the family moved to San Francisco. She is a graduate of Washington Union high school and is an accomplished musician.

Mr. George is the son of Joseph George and brother of Mrs. Fred Lewis. He is also a graduate of Washington Union high school.

The wedding will take place in September at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lewis.

The young couple will make their home in San Francisco where Mr. George is now employed.

Mrs. Frank Madruga, Mrs. Frank Souza, and Mrs. M. Santos are on their way home from the Hawaiian Islands on the liner Lurline which will dock in San Francisco Friday.

CENTERVILLE SCOUT TROUP ON TOUR

CENTERVILLE—Twelve members of Centerville Troop of Boy Scouts, accompanied by Principal Thomas Maloney and James Nunes, Centerville scoutmaster, were among the number of scouts taken on a sight-seeing tour of San Francisco bay last Friday.

The boys left Oakland on the yacht, S. S. Wilder, at 9 a. m. and visited the boats docked in the Oakland estuary, the Golden Gate bridge, the Oakland-San Francisco bridge, San Quentin and San Francisco and Oakland waterfronts.

There was a time during the cruise that some of the boys contemplated throwing overboard the lunches they had carried, thinking they would not care to even see the food therein. However, when lunch hour came and the Wilder rested at Fisherman's pier there were no remaining symptoms of mal de mer.

The annual camporee for the scouts of Washington Township, Pleasanton and Livermore districts will take place at Bonita Park between Pleasanton and Suisun on July 31 and August 1.

HONEST FEARLESS CAPABLE

See the New Gasoline Economy of the FORD V-8-demonstrated before your eyes!

WE have painted up a "Scottie Car" simply to demonstrate the increased mileage of this new 1936 Ford V-8. It is not a "special" Ford car. It is a regular 1936 stock model Ford V-8 with distinctive exterior decoration and a glass gallon jug connected with a Zenith tester. No adjustments have been made to make it perform differently from any new stock car. The jug is added so that you can see a measured amount of gasoline used with your own eyes, instead of having it come from the tank at the rear.

Take a ride in a "Scottie Car." See for yourself that a Ford V-8 is just as economical on gasoline as smaller, less powerful cars. You can arrange it without cost or obligation by calling—YOUR FORD DEALER

FARMERS WITH COURAGE

Washington Township farmers have what it takes.

The way M. T. Silva, Louis Amaral, Charles Langdon and others have fought for better tomato prices should make everyone in these parts proud of them.

Of course Charles Rinderspacher is a good man too but he lives way over in Eden township.

Early this year, when cannery prices looked like they were to be around $11, the local farmers decided they would organize and hold out for a price that at least would pay expenses. Tomato growers from other sections of the state swore they would do likewise.

Then, as time went on and the bigger canneries put on the well-known pressure, group after group fell away, signed contracts for what they could get, and gave up the fight.

But not the Washington Township men. They stuck.

Silva, Langdon, Rinderspacher, Amaral and many others, at considerable cost to themselves, held meeting after meeting, spent much time interviewing their neighbors, risked the displeasure of the cannery men on whom they have to depend for marketing their product.

This week saw the first fruits of their efforts. The first cannery contract with the Southern Alameda County Vegetable Growers' association has been signed.

It is a small beginning to be sure, but the important thing is that the beginning has been made, and that Washington Township farmers have had the courage to make it.

BABSON'S TRAILER FORECAST

Roger Babson, economist and seer, was quoted recently as predicting in a speech that within ten years thirty million Americans would be living a nomad existence in auto trailers. Phophets have one big advantage. When their forecasts are fulfilled they can say "I told you so." If the prophecies fail, everyone will have forgotten.

Several facts work against realization of Babson's clairvoyance. There are not thirty million Americans possessing sufficient independent income to permit them to travel without jobs or fixed abode. True, seasonal farming operations furnish part time employment to millions. But the pay is low, the jobs uncertain and of brief duration.

People quickly tire of trailers. The vans are cramped, stuffy and hot. One vacation in a crowded trailer is enough, usually. Or at most, two. The vehicles are cumbersome to store when not in use. Already hundreds of used trailers are for sale at cut prices on lots in the cities. You can buy a second hand trailer for half its original cost, or less.

For the price of a trailer you can spend an annual two-week vacation for several years in clean, roomy auto camps, and have money left over. And not be troubled about the corpus delicti. We don't care for auto trailers—much.

We hope Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Thane will continue to maintain their place as the Township's finest couple for another 62 years. Yesterday was their sixty-second wedding anniversary and no doubt they received many congratulations.

There is no need for us to go through the long list of services the Thanes have rendered their community. Everybody knows what they have done. We would rather say something of the kindly manner in which they welcome newcomers to Washington Township, of the countless little ways in which they work to make strangers feel at home. In these things they are unsurpassed and for these things we shall always honor them.

It is said on every hand by his supporters that Roosevelt is the first president in many years to be the friend of the common man. "Human rights above constitutional rights" is the war cry of the Roosevelt Democrats.

This newspaper contends that the best interests of the common man will be served by an administration which will balance its budget and preserve the credit and integrity of the country.

SONG RESUNG

A Grecian maid respectable
With form and face delectable
Resided in a chalet
In a valley by the sea.
Though her face was fair and freckless,
Tis admitted she was feckless.
Tis no duty
To have beauty
Plus a high mentality.

Now it happened that her pater
Wished to wed his only daughter
To a stupid
Slave of Cupid
Who from Sparta came to woo.
"If you don't wed Menelaus," Poppa said, "He's bound to flay us."
He's a lien upon our cattle
And a chattel mortgage too!"

So Helen did her duty,
Though the young man was no
beauty,
And depart a
While for Sparta
They immediately did.
But with hubby at the barracks
All day, polishing his war ax,
The life proved trite
And boresome quite
For such a lively kid.

Then came a handsome stranger
Whose charms did quite derange
her,
For he pleaded
That she needed
A more free, untrammelled life.
And was then, all unsuspecting,
Menny found this note affecting:
"Gone to Paris.
Don't embarrass
With divorce. Your loving wife."

The dirty Anthropophagus!

I'll tear out his esophagus!"
The gentle Menny
Yelled at any
One who happened near.
Then he summoned his relations
From surrounding Pelop nations
And vowed that stiff
He'd capture if
It took him twenty year.

The war was slow but furious
(If anyone is curious)
And wholesale amputation
With elation was begu
But as even deeds phlebotomous
Aro apt to grow monotonous,
Th' Achaens
Warbled paeans
When they found they'd finally won.

Twice a decade since he'd seen
her
And he found her somewhat leaner.
(Malnutrition
Foil'd beautifulian
On that beleaguered soil).
Her complexion, it was shocking.
For all ports the Greeks were blocking
With embargoes
On all cargoes
Of palm and olive oil.

"Is this the mug I've battled for?"
Our disappointed hero swore,
Before he drew
His dagger through
His gizzard and fell dead.
But his home town areophagus
Boasts a fine sarcophagus
To honor Sparta's
Martyr.
And why he fought and bled.

The Farmer's Corner...

BY RALPH H. TAYLOR
(Executive Secretary, Agricultural Council of California)

"How Can I Reduce My Tax Bills?"

Thousands of California taxpayers undoubtedly ask themselves that question every year, when tax bills become due and payable. Many protest bitterly to their local officials; others go to the "rounds of the court house or city hall, vainly seeking an adjustment. But finally the average taxpayer throws up his hands in despair, pays the bill—and wanders home muttering imprecations against "politics and politicians."

The farmer returns to his farm; the business man to his business—and the question goes unanswered, perhaps because the answer requires intelligent application to the problems of government, conscientious citizenship, time, work and energy. Fundamentally, the only answer to the question—"How can I reduce my tax bills?"—is simply this: "By being a better citizen, a real partner in the business of government."

Individually, the average citizen can do little toward solving the problem. But collectively, average citizens—with their wives, their neighbors, their friends and business associates—can work out their own salvation. And no one else can do it for them. Increase the number of citizens actively participating in government and many of the present tax problems will quickly disappear, if the new working citizens are both intelligent and vigorous. And if government takes one-fifth of your income, certainly it deserves one-fifth of your time and energy.

Still interested in the basic question of reducing your tax bills, you may ask: "Where do we begin?" "How do I go to work at this business of government?"

Again the answer is simple and currency inflation, will enjoy few "human rights."

Yet those are the things that will come upon us, unless we cease to spend more than we take in.

Rooseveltians defend government expenditures by saying that the people cannot be allowed to starve. That is a good defense but it does not go far enough. It does not answer the charges of waste in government expenditures, impractical relief expenditures.

This newspaper believes that the starving can be fed and the budget balanced. While its voice is small and its influence meager, it will do its best to support any candidate or party which will present the details of a practical plan to achieve these two things.

City Life

AS SEEN FROM WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP

Te other day when we were in town, we went up to the Tribune office to look up Don Cruzon, who is state editor. He was out but one of his henchmen said he was probably eating at Compton's restaurant around the corner. We went to Compton's, and as we approached the entrance, the door flew smartly ope for us without the touch of human hand.

Being from the country, we felt it incumbent on us not to give ourselves away by gawking; so we maintained what we believe to have been a poker face, walked firmly up to the restaurant manager and asked him about the door.

He said it was the only door of its kind in the Eastbay. He said further that there are one in San Francisco, one in Fresno and several in Hollywood. Compton's door has been in use about 10 days.

A photo-electric cell controls it. As the prospective diner passes in front of a small lamp near the door, his shadow breaks the circuit and operates a compressed air mechanism which opens the door automatically.

We asked the manager if curious people didn't block the passage in and out of the restaurant. He said they did sometimes but not enough to cause annoyance. Chief problem is from boys who have a tendency to dash in and out for hours at a time. When this happens, he speaks to them firmly and sometimes they go away.

We believe that anyone who would like to play a joke on Compton's could approach the door, slap a piece of friction tape or flypaper across the photo-electric cell bulb and walk rapidly away, leaving the current interrupted and the door open until the stuff could be peeled off. We haven't the nerve to do such a thing ourselves but we pass the suggestion on.

A lady of our acquaintance, who suffers from hay fever and allergic poisoning, reports the following remark by her bay city doctor, who specializes in those ailments: "I certainly picked the right profession," he said smugly. "No one ever dies of hay fever and no one ever gets well."

Maybe it was an accident. But when we went to an amateur performance of "All For Love" at San Jose state college the other night, there was no admission charged. It was a crack performance too. From the looks of things there, we have come to the conclusion that they don't charge admission to their campus shows. "All For Love" is John Dryden's version of the Antony-Cleopatra story. The San Jose players caught a garter snake and white-washed it for the asp—at least that's what we were informed.

The signs along the road between the township and Oakland are worth attention. One, often repeated, reads: "Calling All Cars CRACKED." The word "gasoline" follows "CRACKED" in very small type, but it is so small and the lack of punctuation so obvious, that the sign always makes us blink. Something about cracked drivers might be more to the point.

tions" now allowed special groups and types of property—and weigh carefully your action on further exemptions of this nature. Again some may be justified, but keep in mind that an exemption is actually an indirect appropriation of public funds to a special class or group—and that the non-exempt must foot the bill.

Determine sound ways and means of simplifying governmental procedure — eliminating unnecessary governmental units and services.

Above all else, the taxpayer who has determined to become an acat the outset of the fault of "blaming the politicians" for the ills of government. Usually government officers reflect the citizenship of their various communities — and their private opinions of the intelligence of the average voter are often (and sometimes with tite citizen, should purge himself complete justification) just as uncomplimentary as the voter's opinion of his public servant. To lower your tax bills, first admit your complicity in making them what they are—and then go to work as an active partner in the business. It will pay real dividends.

Dear Jest:

Usually a fellow with too much rope not only gets himself in trouble but the folks about him.

GRAIN STORED
IN WAREHOUSES

The threshing season is in full swing in Alameda county. Twenty-five thousand sacks of grain have already been stored to date in the C. F. Salz warehouses in Decoto and it is expected that this will be doubled before the end of the season.

CALIFORNIA News of the Week

Alameda.—Climaxing its probe of alleged corruption and graft in the Alameda city government, the County Grand Jury returned a secret indictment charging bribery against Mayor Hans W. Roebke and five other city officials. The six defendants are also accused of conspiracy to commit bribery, conspiracy to divert to their own use part of the salaries and fees of deputies, clerks and subordinate officers and conspiracy to commit petty theft.

Alturas.—Two and one-half million feet of timber in the Barber Canyon north of Adin have been sold by the United States Forest Service. One hundred thirty-five million feet of timber situated northeast of Hackamore will be opened for bids soon. This timber is infested with pine beetle and it is being sold for milling to save it from further infestation.

El Centro.—Six deaths attributed to the heat were reported in one day in the Imperial Valley, where the temperature rose to 119 degrees. The humidity reached 51.

Needles.—A freak electrical storm followed by heavy rain passed over a 100-mile area near here, delaying trains and breaking communication lines. Lightning struck a telephone pole near Bagdad, disturbing service for several hours. A heavy sandstorm preceded the electrical storm and trainmen were unable to see lighted signal fuses on the tracks.

Los Angeles.—David Lamson, former Stanford Press executive, acquitted of wife murder last spring, will marry again. He and Mrs. Ruth Smith Rankin, film writer, filed notice of intention to wed here after a two months' romance. Lamson gave his age as 34 and his business as "screen writer."

Yosemite.—A vacation trip for George C. Block, 42, ended in tragedy when he was struck and killed by lightning at Tuolumne Meadows. His clothing was shredded to bits by the bolt which apparently went through him from the top of his head. Rangers said it was the first bolt fatal to a human in the history of Yosemite National Park.

San Francisco.—California's automobile industry topped all previous monthly records in June with sales of 30,496 cars and trucks. It was the first time in the State's history that sales exceeded 30,000. The June sales were about 38 per cent ahead of June last year, when new registrations numbered 22,010.

Napa.—The historic Stanly ranch winery and nearly a dozen other ranch buildings were destroyed by fire, with total damage estimated at $50,000. Thousands of gallons of wine cascaded from the tanks as the fire reached the roof of the stone-walled winery.

Redlands.—An eighty-acre lake, to provide water for the Houston Flats district in the San Bernardino Mountains, and to cost $165,000 will be created by A. Gregory, Redlands capitalist, with construction of a dam. He is donating a large block of land for the lake and the federal government will furnish the labor.

San Bernardino.—A gigantic human skull, believed to be the head of a prehistoric man, was unearthed in a gravel pit by a steamshovel operator here. The skull is half again as large as that of a modern man's. It has a huge prognathous jaw, high cheek bones and jutting teeth in the upper jaw, believed to be Mongolian in conformation.

Sacramento.—Hangovers and an alcohol breath are barred for California's traffic officers in orders issued by Ray Ingels, state director of motor vehicles. Ingels said that not only will officers be prohibited from drinking while on duty or off duty while they are in uniform, but they also cannot leave a party and report for work smelling like a distillery.

San Francisco.—Plans for a gigantic mass flight of San Francisco Bay area airplanes to Los Angeles in September on the occasion of the National Air Races have been announced by the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce. Commercial air lines and every owner of a private plane in northern California will be asked to participate. The air races will be held in Los Angeles, September 5, 6 and 7.

Navarro (Mendocino Co.)—Electric lights have come to this old Mendocino County village for the first time in its history. Installation of electric lines in the community has just been completed by the Pacific Gas & Electric Company.

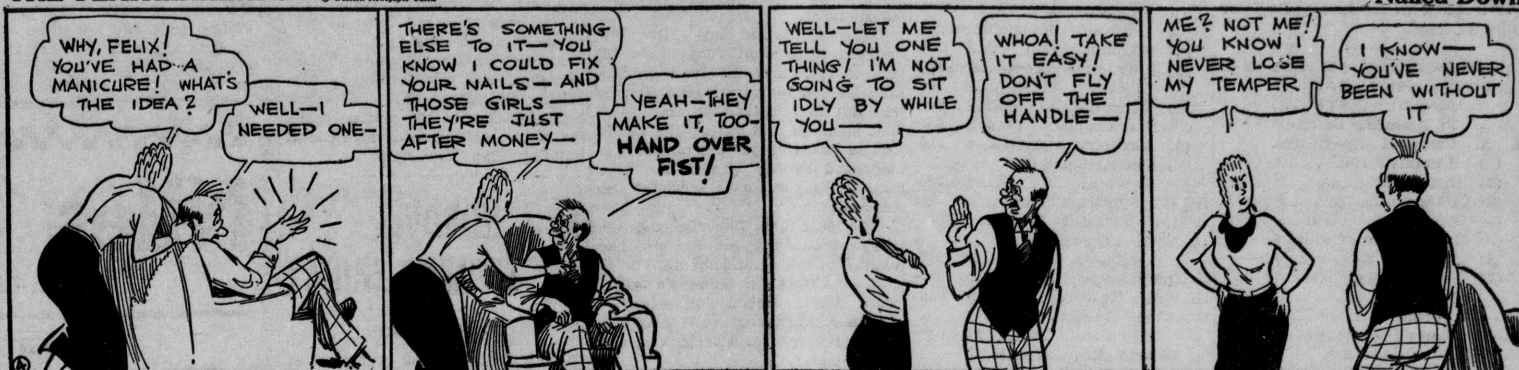

San Francisco.—This city has the lowest infant mortality rate in the United States, according to Dr. J. C. Geiger, director of public health. Figures compiled for cities of more than 500,000 population show the rate is 35.5 per 1,000 population.

Helpers

THERE is something very heartening in the knowledge that we can all help each other, and that the worst suffering of all—that of loneliness or bereavement—need never be an actual desolation; for there is always someone ready to save the deepest wound with the balm of sympathy, and the warm clasp of some comforting hand, the tears in some kind eyes are the surest proofs that the heart under its human aspect has the power to call the hidden soul to life.

One may always begin again who keeps his enthusiasm.

The Invisible Ear Drum invented by A. O. Leonard, a son of the late Rev. A. B. Leonard, D.D., for many years secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, for his own relief from extreme deafness and head noises, has so greatly improved his hearing that he can join in any ordinary conversation, go to the theatre and hear without difficulty. Inexpensive and has proved a blessing to many people. Write for booklet to A. O. Leonard, Inc., Suite 204, 70 Fifth Avenue, New York City. Advt.

NEWARK FANS HOT FOR BIG TOURNEY

By EUGENE PASHOTE
NEWARK — Newark merchants won their second straight victory Sunday from the Sparks Stoves team by a 7 to 4 score.

Newark used a string of 16 players in the game as a tryout to determine which should be picked for the Oakland Tribune tournament.

Ferrera allowed no hits but walked three men. Rodriguez allowed two hits in five innings and walked four. Silveira allowed one hit and walked seven. Newark made 10 hits during the game. The local boys are much encouraged by the size of the gate and thank the Spark men for the turnout.

The local team filed Tuesday for the tournament. Joe Pashote has charge of the arrangements. Star hitters in Sunday's game were Garcia, Lebon and Silva.

The Newark team will play the O. K. Battery team from Oakland next Sunday.

Following is a short story of each of the ball players who will take part in the tournament.

Joseph Amaral, pitcher. Played for Newark this season. Batting average .351. Won nine games and lost two. Good outfielder.

Edward Rose, infielder, has played third base. Will play second in the tournament.

Joseph Dutra is considered best third baseman in Southern Alameda county league. Has been hitting a .400 clip.

Edward Lebon, outfielder, has played this season with Newark. Good hitter. Played for Ogaard Motors for two years. Will play right field in tournament.

Roderick is a fine first baseman. Best hitter for last year's tournament.

Lloyd Silveira, utility pitcher and outfielder, has played for Newark all this season. Fast base runner.

Louis Silva, Washington high graduate. Watch that boy throw! Kenneth McFry, left fielder, has a reputation and is a heavy hitter.

Wesley Fraso, will play at second during this season. Has played short stop most of the time during this season.

Leonard Ferrara, pitched for Newark last year in tournament. He'll pitch this year. He's a good hitter and outfield man.

Mal Gonsalves, fine hitter, has played with San Leandro merchants. He has been doing good work for Newark this year.

BERNARD LOSES
VALUABLE RIFLE

IRVINGTON — Antone R. Bernard, employed at the M. V. Perry ranch in Irvington, reported the loss by theft of a rifle which he was about to put in order for deer hunting. The theft was reported to Constable Tom Silva.

MAN HIT TREE
GOES TO JAIL

CENTERVILLE—Sheridan Clark Blackburn of Tracy charged with driving on the public highway while intoxicated on July 26 appeared before Judge Allen G. Norris Monday, pleaded guilty, and was given twenty days in the county jail. Blackburn is said to have run into a tree in Mission San Jose.

MARINE CORPS
WANTS RECRUITS

There will now be more opportunities for desirable young men to serve with the marines, as congress recently authorized an increase of 1,000 men in the United States Marine Corps. Applicants who successfully pass the examination, may be transferred to the marine corps base at San Diego without delay.

Anyone interested may obtain literature and information by consulting Postmaster H. V. Fournier or by writing to the marine corps recruiting station, room 46, Federal building, San Francisco.

T. J. NORDVIK
TO WED FRIDAY

ALVARADO—T. J. Nordvik, Alvarado druggist and president of the Alvarado chamber of commerce, will wed Miss Wilma De Vries, daughter of A. De Vries of Alameda, at a ceremony in the Christian Reformed church of Alameda Friday.

The young couple will take a brief wedding trip following the ceremony and will make their home in Alvarado.

AMERICAN LEGION
AUXILIARY ELECTS

CENTERVILLE—At the election of officers for the term 1936-1937 of the American Legion Auxiliary, Unit 195, Washington Post, which took place at their last regular meeting, three Centerville ladies were chosen to fill the three first places in the list of officers. Mrs. Marie Brazil was elected president; Mrs. Marie Darte, first vice president, and Mrs. Angie Furtado, second vice president. Mrs. Jessie Kommes, also of Centerville, was elected marshal. The officers will be installed on August 4 at a special installation ceremony now being planned.

U. P. P. E. C. 19
MEMBERS VISIT
SAN LEANDRO

CENTERVILLE—Eighteen members of Council 29, U. P. E. C. of Centerville attended the installation ceremonies of Council No. 6 at San Leandro on Monday night. Those who went to San Leandro for the occasion were Mrs. Rita Oliveira, Mrs. Mary G. Perry, Mrs. Rose V. Freitas, Mrs. Mary L. S. George, Mrs. Mary Rodriguez, Mrs. Mary Brazil, Mrs. Alvina Bribes, Mrs. Mary Bettencourt, Miss Emily Bettencourt, Mrs. Mary Caldeira, Miss Nina Jasper, Mrs. Anna Dias, Mrs. Susie Lewis, Miss Naomi Vieux, Mrs. Rose Maciel and Mrs. Mary Maciel.
